

High School Juniors Invited to Apply for Summer Internship

January 10, 2018

Jan. 10, 2018

High School Juniors Invited to Apply for Summer Internship

Newark—Acting Essex County Prosecutor Robert D. Laurino announced today high school juniors, interested in law enforcement, are urged to apply for the Essex County Prosecutor’s Office annual summer internship program.

This five-week program is designed to expose high school students to careers in law, law enforcement and government. The summer internship program will run from July 5, 2018 through August 3, 2018 for students completing their junior year in June 2018. Interns must be Essex County residents.

During this unique internship program, interns will be exposed to a comprehensive curriculum that includes: learning about the role and function of the Essex County Prosecutor’s Office; participating in New Jersey State Trooper Youth Week, participating in a mock trial; touring various law enforcement agencies and learning about local government. Throughout the summer internship program, interns will also participate in cultural events and attend workshops that focus on career readiness and making positive choices.

Applications for the summer internship program can be found on the Essex County Prosecutor’s Office website at www.njecpo.org under Community Programs. The application deadline is March 9, 2018. For further information, you may contact Nicole Graves-Watson, Community Justice Coordinator, at (973) 621-4317 or via email at nicole.graves@njecpo.org.